Lynx Dominate Knights 5-0

CONCORD, NH – The NHTI Women's soccer team picked up where they left off on Tuesday with a 5-0 victory over Vermont Tech. The Lynx dominated possession as well as shots with a 28-5 advantage.

USCAA Player of the Week Emily Knouse (Loudon, NH) netted her second-straight hat trick with three goals and an assist. Kallesta Selby (Newbury, NH) added her second-straight two-goal performance. Alexis Deming (Jefferson, NH) had her best collegiate game with a three-assist day, while Grace Bradley (Berlin, NH) got assist number one in her career.

Madison Lima (Belmont, NH) registered her fourth shutout of the season and her second in a row with a five save performance.

"The girls worked hard today to get the conference win against a very scrappy Vermont Tech team," said Head Coach Heidi Crockett. "I continue to be proud of this groups desire to be better every day."
