Lynx Women's Soccer Shut Out Seawolves in 2-0 Victory

S. PORTLAND, ME – The Lynx women's soccer team picked up a big victory on Wednesday defeating rival Southern Maine CC by a 2-0 final. The story of the game goes to Madison Lima (Belmont, NH), who continues to excel from the goalkeeper position with an eight save shutout.

The offense came in the second half as Kalleesta Selby (Newbury, NH) secured goal number two off a feed from Emily Knouse (Loudon, NH). The captains connected in the 72nd minute and continue to be the driving force of NHTI's offense. In the 83rd minute some insurance came off a corner as Jaycee Murray (Lancaster, NH) put a beautiful ball into the box when Madisyn Buteau (Gorham, NH) headed it home for collegiate goal number one. The Lynx hammered down the defense and kept the home team offense quiet. This included stellar play from Morgan Rule (Concord, NH), Gwendalynn Knipping (Gilford, NH) and Grace Bradley (Berlin, NH) who led the defensive charge.

The Lynx Women's soccer team will host Holyoke CC at 11:00 AM on Saturday.
